BEFORE
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DEVASHIS BARUAH

30.06.2022

Heard Mr. N. Alam, the learned counsel for the appellant and Mr. B. Deka, the learned counsel for the respondent Nos. 1 & 2.

The instant appeal is directed against the order dated 31.05.2022 passed in Misc.(J) Case No.412/2022, arising out of the T.S. No.317/2022 by the Court of the Civil Judge No.2, Kamrup (M) At Guwahati whereby the court below taking into consideration that there was urgency had issued notice upon the respondents herein and fixed 18.07.2022 for SR/objection.

The case of the appellant herein is that the appellant apprehends that the respondent would forcefully enter into the Schedule-B flat to the plaintiff without execution of registered deed of sale as well as payment of the balance amount.

On the other hand, Mr. B. Deka, the learned counsel for the respondents submits that admittedly the appellant is in possession of the Schedule-B flat and the apprehension of the appellant is totally misconceived inasmuch as there is no intention of the respondent Nos. 1 & 2 to forcefully enter into the Schedule-B flat.

Taking into consideration that the injunction proceedings are presently pending before the Court of the Civil Judge No.2, Kamrup (M) At Guwahati, this Court does not want to enter into the merit of the dispute as regards the entitlement of the injunction.

However, taking into consideration the apprehension of the appellant and the submission made by the counsel for the respondents that the apprehension is totally misconceived, this Court is of the opinion that till the disposal of the injunction proceedings, the status-quo as regards the possession of the Schedule-B flat shall be maintained.

The learned counsel for the respondents submits that they would be filing their written objection without fail on 18.07.2022 to the injunction application. Taking into account that this Court had directed that the status-quo be maintained as regard the possession of the Schedule-B flat till the disposal of the injunction proceedings, this Court further directs the Court of the Civil Judge No.2, Kamrup (M) at Guwahati to dispose of the said injunction proceedings on or before 18.08.2022.

The observation made herein above shall not prejudice the court below while deciding the injunction proceeding.

With the above observation, the instant appeal stands disposed of.
