ORDER

30-06-2022

Heard Shri D. Khan, learned counsel for the applicant.

The present application has been filed for revival of the connected contempt case No. 515/2018 which was disposed of by this Court vide order dated 13.05.2019.

While closing the contempt case vide the order dated 13.05.2019, this Court had recorded that the closure was account of the submissions made on behalf of the respondents that the order in question was complied with. This Court had further observed that if the petitioner had not received the amount which was submitting on behalf of the respondent, liberty was granted to revive the petition.

For ready reference, the order is quoted herein below:

“Heard Mr. D. Khan, learned counsel for the petitioner.

It has been submitted by Mr. R.R. Gogoi, learned counsel for respondents that the money directed to be paid to the petitioner have already been released.

In view of above submission made, the present cont. petition is closed.

However, if for any reason, the petitioner has not received the same, the petitioner would be at the liberty to file an application for reviving this petition.”

It is the specific case of the petitioner that the amount in question has not been received by him and accordingly the present Interlocutory application has been filed.

Shri B. Choudhury, learned counsel appearing for the respondents has submitted that the earlier submission was made based on certain instructions.

Be that as it may, in view of the categorical statement that the amount in question is yet to be received and also taking into consideration the liberty given by this Court, the instant Interlocutory application is allowed and the contempt petition No. 515/2018 stands revived.
