06/28.02.2022 Common question of law are involved in all the writ petitions and as such they have been tagged and taken up together.

At the very outset, Mr. Dhananjay Kumar Dubey, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner draws attention of this Court towards Paragraphs-8 to 12 of the counter affidavit and submits that grievance of the petitioners have already been redressed and these writ petitions have now become infructuous.

Learned counsel representing State does not dispute.

Since grievances of the petitioners have already been redressed and nothing remains to be adjudicated, the writ petitions according stand disposed of.

As a consequence thereto, pending Interlocutory Applications also stand disposed of.
