30/11/2022

This bail application under Section 439 Cr.P.C. has been filed by the petitioner in connection with FIR No.690/2022 registered at Police Station kama, District Bharatpur wherein he is charged for the offences punishable under Sections 143, 323, 341, 354, 336, 382 and 427 of IPC.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the alleged offences are triable by the Magistrate and FIR has been registered against 27 accused persons and general omnibus allegations have been levelled against them. Counsel submits that no specific overt act has been assigned to the petitioner and the petitioner is not having any criminal antecedents. Petitioner is in judicial custody since the date of his arrest and conclusion of the trial will take its own time, so indulgence of bail may be granted to him.

Per contra, learned Public Prosecutor as well as counsel for the complainant have opposed the bail application.

Considering the arguments put forward by learned counsel for the petitioner and looking to the facts that the alleged offences are triable by the Magistrate and general omnibus allegations have been levelled against the petitioner and trial will take its own time to conclude but without commenting any opinion on merits or demerits of the case, I deem it just and appropriate to grant indulgence of bail to the petitioner under Section 439 Cr.P.C.

Accordingly, the bail application under Section 439 Cr.P.C. is allowed and it is ordered that accused-petitioner- Rajpal S/o Harmukh arrested in connection with the aforementioned FIR, may be released on bail; provided he furnishes a personal bond of Rs.50,000/- with two surety bonds of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of learned trial Court with the stipulation to appear before that Court on all dates of hearing and as and when called upon to do so.
