ORAL ORDER

At the outset, learned advocate Mr. P.J. Davawala appearing for the respondent No.1 upon instruction states that possession of the subject land has already transferred to the State Government and now it is under control of State Government and therefore, the prayer made in the petition can be considered only by the State Government.

In view of that the petitioner is at liberty to make an appropriate application for allotment of premises to the concerned State authority. No further order can be passed in the present application as the land in question is not under control of official liquidator now.

In view of above, the present application would not survive and the same is disposed of.
