			WPSS No.1821 of 2023 Hon'ble Pankaj Purohit, J. Mr. Shruti Joshi, learned counsel for the petitioners. 2. Mr. Narayan Dutt, learned Standing Counsel for the State. 3. Mr. T.A. Khan, learned Senior counsel assisted by Mr. Mohd. Shafy, learned counsel holding brief of Mr. Vinay Bhatt, learned counsel for respondent nos. 2 and 3. 4. Petitioner was employed as Sugarcane Supervisor in Kisan Sahkari Chini Mill, Sitarganj and retired on 28.02.2018. According to him, benefit of 7th Pay Commission has not been given to him from the due date. In this writ petition, petitioner has sought the following relief:- “a) Issue a writ order or direction in the nature of Mandamus commanding and directing the respondents to pay the arrears of different in pay for the period from 01.01.2016 to the date of retirement of petitioners, subsequent to the grant of benefit of 7th Pay Commission to the employees of Centralized services of the Sugar Mills of Cooperative as well as public sector.” 5. Learned counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance on a judgment passed by Division Bench of this Court in WPSB No.615 of 2022. Thus he submits that present writ petition may also be decided in terms of the said judgment.

		6. Learned counsel appearing for respondent nos.2 and 3 concedes that the controversy involved in the present writ petition is squarely covered by the aforesaid judgment, however, he submits that due to precarious financial condition of the sugar mill, some more time may be given to respondents to pay the arrears due to petitioner. 7. Accordingly, writ petition is disposed-off with a direction to respondents to pay the arrears, due to petitioner for the period 01.01.2016 to 28.02.2018, within nine months from today. In case, arrears are not paid within stipulated time, the same shall carry interest at the rate of six per cent per annum. (Pankaj Purohit, J.) 29.09.2023 SK
