ORDER

27.06.2024

1. Mr. S. H. Rather, learned counsel appearing for the petitioners seeks withdrawal of the instant writ petition at this threshold stage with liberty to file fresh one, if need arises, as according to him, the respondents have already cancelled the subject tender notice.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioners furnished a copy of the Communication bearing No. HU/II/676-79 dated 25.06.2024 issued by respondent No. 3-the Dy. General Manager, Housing Board Unit-II, Jammu addressed to the petitioners-Company revealing the cancellation of the subject tender, the same is taken on record.
3. Since the respondents have already cancelled the subject tender notice after filing of the instant writ petition before the Registry, as such, the prayer of the learned counsel for the petitioners is accepted and the instant writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty to file fresh one in the wake of the new development pertaining to the subject matter.
