..... Opp. Parties

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJESH KUMAR

For the Petitioner : Mr. Amit Kr. Sinha, Advocate
For the State : Mrs. Amrita Kumari, A.P.P
For the O.P. No.02 : Mr. Sumit Prakash, Advocate

04/Dated: 31st January, 2024

1. Heard learned counsel for the applicant, learned A.P.P and learned counsel for the O.P. No.02.
2. Apprehending his arrest, the applicant has approached this Court for grant of privilege of anticipatory bail, in connection with Complaint Case No.2108 of 2015, registered for the offence under Sections 406/ 420/ 120B of the Indian Penal Code.
3. Innocence of the applicant has been claimed and undertaking has been given for co-operating with the investigating agency and participation in the trial. It has been submitted that present case has arisen out of a complaint case. this application is merely an employee of the company and he has no concern with the business of the company. He is not the beneficiary. On the above basis, prayer for anticipatory bail has been made.
4. Learned A.P.P and learned counsel for the O.P. No.02 have opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail.
5. Considering the above facts, I am inclined to grant the privilege of anticipatory bail to the applicant. Accordingly, the applicant is directed to surrender in the court below within four weeks from today and in the event of his arrest or surrender, the court below shall enlarge the applicant on bail on his furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate, 1st Class, Giridih in connection with Complaint Case No.2108 of 2015, subject to the condition as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Further, this applicant will submit self-attested photocopy of his Aadhaar Card and also submit his mobile number before the learned court below which he will always keep active and will not change it during pendency of this case without prior permission of the court.
