Notice. Mr. R.S. Verma, learned Additional Advocate General, appears and waives service of notice on behalf of the respondents.

2. The record of the case shows that the petitioners have directly moved this Court without representing to the respondent/competent authority.

3. In this view of the matter, the writ petition is disposed of by granting liberty to the petitioners to represent to the respondent/competent authority for the redressal of their grievances raised in the writ petition. It is hoped and expected and learned Additional Advocate General assures that as soon as the
