The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 191(2), 126(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS in Crime No.141 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to some wordy quarrel between the parties, the petitioner along with other accused assaulted the defacto complainant using stones. Due to which, the defacto complainant sustained injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that due to some wordy quarrel between the parties, the petitioner along with other accused assaulted the defacto complainant using stones. Due to which, the defacto complainant sustained injuries and two previous cases are pending against the petitioner and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and considering that there is a dispute pending between the petitioner and the defacto complainant in respect of bus route and injured was also discharged from hospital and though two previous cases are pending against the petitioner, in that cases also he was released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen
