2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a family dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, due to which, the petitioners and the first accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked her. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
