Having argued the matter at length, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he be permitted to withdraw the petition so as to enable the petitioner to approach the competent authority as regards the refund of the amount she had deposited.

To this, learned counsel for the respondents, on instructions, submits that no such request was ever made by the petitioner in the past. Therefore, he submits, if the petitioner moves any such representation, the same shall be considered and dealt with by the authority concerned, in accordance with law.
