WPSS No.109 of 2021

Hon'ble Pankaj Purohit, J.

Mr. Prince Chauhan, learned counsel for the petitioner, appeared through V.C.

2. Dr. Kartikey Hari Gupta, learned counsel for the respondents/University, appeared through V.C.

3. The present writ petition has been filed by the petitioner with a prayer that the respondents be directed to pay/ release the arrears of salary of the petitioner, which is due from the month of July, 2020 till date.

4. Vide order dated 27.08.2024, instruction was called from the respondent-University.

5. Today, learned counsel for respondent-University on instruction submits that petitioner is working as Lab Attendant in the department of Micro Biology in the respondent-University. The post held by the petitioner is on self-financed mode and, therefore, due to financial crunch, salaries are not being paid to such employees on regular basis. However, learned counsel for the respondent-University apprised the Court that after order passed by this Court, an amount of Rs.1,34,958/- towards arrears of salary of the petitioner has been paid to petitioner by cheque dated 29.08.2024.

6. So far as the grievance of the petitioner about the payment of regular salary on month to month basis is concerned, learned counsel for the respondent-University admitted said fact and undertakes that University will pay the salary of the petitioner as and when it fell due, in accordance with law. He further submits that the writ petition may be disposed of on the basis of aforesaid terms.

7. Since, the arrears of salary of the petitioner has been paid and further the liability to pay the salary of petitioner on month-to-month basis as and when it fell due, is being accepted by the respondent-University, writ petition is disposed of in the aforesaid terms.

8. Pending application also stands disposed of.
