29/11/2024

The grievance ventilated through this PIL is that there are encroachments made on Government land and also illegal construction of marriage garden, multi-storey building and parking constructed illegally by certain parties.

All the complaints which are being made in this PIL are required to be examined by Tehsildar of Tehsil Ladpura, District Kota. Certain representations have been made to various authorities including Tehsildar also.

Let the petitioners submit detailed application before concerned Tehsildar within a period of one month from today along with a copy of this order. Once application is made, Tehsildar shall issue notice to the persons against whom allegations of illegal construction or encroachment has been made, hear them and then pass an appropriate order in accordance with law as early as possible.

If no decision is taken within a period of four months, petitioners would be at liberty to revive this petition.

Petition is accordingly disposed of.
