ORDER

Date : 30.05.2025

Mr. D. Choudhury, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he had lost contact with his client, therefore, he had served a notice to his client on 29.07.2024. The said letter returned with a postal comment that the addressee had expired.

Also heard Ms. R. Choudhury, learned counsel for the respondent Nos. 1 to 5.

It appears that after demise of the petitioner, no legal heirs or representatives have appeared before this court to continue with the prosecution of this petition.

In the light of the circumstances and the absence of any party to further pursue the matter, the petition stands as abated. There are no prevailing interests continuing to require adjudication by this Court.

Accordingly, this petition is hereby disposed of as abated.

The earlier interim order dated 18.11.2016 stands vacated.
