The Court made the following:

COMMON ORDER:-

As the issues involved in all these writ petitions is one and the same, they are being taken up for hearing as well as disposed of by way of this Common Order.

2. Since the facts in all the writ petitions are similar and identical, therefore W.P.No.29142 of 2024 is taken as lead case, and the facts therein hereafter will be referred to for convenience.

3. Brief facts of the case are that, the petitioners and their forefathers have been in continuous and peaceful possession of the disputed property for over 100 years through an oral lease arrangement. They have regularly paid the rents and property taxes under the Andhra Pradesh Charitable and Hindu Religious Institutions and Endowments Act, 1987. The petitioner and their family have also constructed asbestos sheet house by obtaining necessary approvals. In 2012, the authorities initiated eviction proceedings against the petitioner and neighbouring residents and the learned tribunal has passed an order for eviction. Thereafter, Assistant Commissioner of Nellore allowed them to remain on the property on an enhanced rental basis by paying rents and taxes. In response to a complaint allegirg encroachment, the Lokayuktha of Andhra Pradesh vide orders dated 01.05.2024, directed the authorities to remove encroachments and construct a shopping complex. Consequently, on 13.08.2024, the Respondent No.3 issued a notice under Section 83 of the Endowments Act, claiming that the petitioner had no legal entitlement to the property and was an encroacher. The petitioner submitted an explanation on 19.08.2024, asserting their long-standing possession, payment of rents and compliance with legal requirements, but however, Respondent No.3 issued an eviction order on 26.11.2024, directing the petitioner to vacate the property illegally. Hence, the W.P.No.29142 of 2024 is filed.

4. The pleadings which are cited by the petitioner in W.P.No.29142 of 2024, the same are adopted by the other petitioners in all the remaining writ petitions.

5. Heard Sri Akula Sri Krishna Sai Bhargav and Sri Ram Babu Devarapu, learned counsels appearing for the petitioners and learned counsels appearing for the respondents.

6. On hearing, learned counsel for the petitioners while reiterating the contents urged in the writ petitions, submits that, the respondent authorities issued a notice under Section 83 of the Endowments Act, claiming that the petitioners had no legal entitlement to the property and were encroachers. Though the petitioners submitted the explanations, the respondents have issued eviction orders, directing the petitioners to vacate and surrender possession of the properties, which is illegal and arbitrary. Hence, learned counsel for the petitioners requests this Court to pass appropriate orders.

7. Per Contra, learned counsels appearing for the respondents opposed for allowing these writ petitions and prayed to dismiss the same.

8. On considering the submissions of both the learned counsels, without touching the merits of the cases, the impugned eviction notices in all the writ petitions passed by the respondents are hereby set aside and the matters are remanded back to the respondents for fresh consideration.

Respondents are further directed to issue fresh notices to the petitioners, and on receipt of the same, the petitioners are directed to submit explanations to the said notices thereafter. However, the respondents are directed to consider the matters afresh after affording an opportunity to the petitioners and pass appropriate reasoned orders in accordance with law. Till then, respondents are directed not to interfere with the possession of the petitioners.

9. With the above observations, these Writ Petitions are disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.

As a sequel, miscellaneous applications pending, if any, shall stand closed.
