%

1. Learned counsel for respondent appears on advance notice and does admit that representation/legal notice has yet not been decided. It is, however, submitted that it is under active consideration and would be decided, positively, within a period of one week and the petitioner would also be duly communicated about the outcome of his such representation/legal notice.

2. In view of the above said assurance given by the respondent, the present petition is disposed of. However, in case the needful is not done within the time undertaken today, the petitioner would be at liberty to revive the present contempt petition by moving appropriate application.
