Judgment

28/02/2025

1. At the outset, learned counsel for the petitioner has apprised the Court with the fact that the petitioner has approached learned RAT, however, the Tribunal has not intervened in the matter and has not granted satisfactory hearing. It is further submitted that the petitioner is having certain medical ailments and also has to take care and render support to his old mother.
2. In this background, learned counsel for the petitioner today, has made a limited prayer that the petitioner may be granted liberty to file a representation, for efficacious consideration, by the competent authority.

3. Considering the limited prayer made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, this Court deems it apposite to dispose of the present petition with the aforementioned liberty being granted.

4. Accordingly, the instant petition stands disposed of with the direction that if the petitioner files a representation within a period of seven days from the date of passing of this order, the same be adjudicated within a period of 30 days thereafter, by the competent authority, strictly in accordance with the law and considering administrative exigencies, by passing a speaking order. Pending applications, if any, shall stand disposed of.
