Heard learned counsel for the parties on the second application for suspension of sentence.

The revision petition has been filed against the order dated 10.04.2023 passed by the learned trial Court in Criminal Case No.41647/2019, whereby, the accused-petitioner has been convicted for the offence under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 and sentenced to undergo one year simple imprisonment and payment of compensation of Rs.4,71,000/- to the complainant and in default of payment of compensation, to further undergo two months simple imprisonment. An appeal was preferred by the accused against the said order which was dismissed by the learned appellate Court while affirming/modifying the order of the learned trial Court.

Learned counsel for the accused-petitioner submits that the accused-petitioner was on bail during trial as well as during pendency of the appeal and is presently behind the bars.
